CHICKEN CAESAR SALAD

Classic Italian ingredients, expertly mixed. Grana, chicken and salad are the main ingredients in this fresh and nutritious dish.

An Italian dish born in Mexico

The Caesar's salad is named after the Italian chef Caesar Cardini, who emigrated to the United States after the First World War. The dish was created on July 4, 1924 by combining the ingredients that the chef had on hand in his restaurant in Mexico.

TAGLIATELLE PESTO TRAPANESE

Fresh pasta, fragrant herbs, and classic Italian ingredients combine to create this flavorful, hearty dish.

Reimagining a classic with Northern inspiration

Dating back to the days of Italy's maritime history, Italian sailors would arrive home at the Sicilian port of Trapani after traveling through Asia. Northern Italians introduced the Sicilians to classic basil pesto, and the technique for grinding fresh ingredients into a velvety sauce. The Sicilians adapted this recipe into pesto Trapanese, using fresh tomatoes and almonds native to the region.

ILLYMISÙ

A reinterpretation of the classic Italian dessert, prepared with illy coffee and sponge cake; it contains plenty of mascarpone (35%) to make it even more creamy.

The celebrated dessert from the north east of Italy

The name Tiramisù ("pick me up") refers to the energizing ingredients used to make the dish, including eggs, mascarpone, coffee and cocoa.

APPLE TARTLET

A delicate Torta Paradiso with slices of Italian Golden Delicious apples, glazed with apricot jam.

Italy's favorite apples

First grown in the United States at the end of the 19th century, Golden Delicious apples are now the most widely cultivated and best loved apples in Italy. With their yellow skin and firm, sugary and fragrant flesh, they are ideal for preparing cakes.
